Profile

I work where business and code meet. I build the integrations and tools that keep an e-commerce business running: Shopify, Odoo and the systems in between. I like explaining what I build as much as building it, from writing manuals for colleagues to being scrum master for teams of developers and artists. Next to 24 hours a week of development, I study Business IT & Management full-time.

Experience

- Build the Laravel middleware between Shopify and Odoo: order and customer sync with queues, retries and an admin panel that shows what failed and why.
- Rebuild the integrations for the move from Shopware to Shopify while the back office moves to Odoo.
- Develop custom Odoo modules in Python: models and logic with the ORM, views, QWeb reports and Studio.
- Built a customer self-service portal in Laravel and Filament, piloted with a small group and then opened to all customers.
- Google Workspace admin and IT on- and offboarding; write the user manuals for colleagues.
